1. O Heart of Je - sus, Heart of God, O source of bound-less love,
2. The poor-est, sad-dest heart on earth May claim Thee for its own;
3. The ver - y sound of those sweet words The Sacr - ed Heart, can give
4. A mo - ther may for - get her child, A fa - the prove un - true;
5. The hearts of men are oft - en hard And full of sel - fish care:
6. To Thee, my Je - sus, then I come, A poor and help - less child;
7. The world is cold, and life is sad, I crave the bless - ed rest;
8. For love is strong-er far than death, And who can love like Thee,
9. The pur - est, deep - est earth - ly love, What is it, Lord, to Thine?

By an - gels praised, by Saints a - dored, From their bright thrones a - bove!
O burn-ing, throb-bing Heart of Christ, Too late, too lit - tle known!
To the most lone and bur-dened soul Strength to en - dure and live.
A bro - ther or a sis - ter turn Un - kind and thank-less too.
But in the sacr - ed Heart we find A re - fuge from des - pair.
And on Thine own words: Come to Me; My on - ly hope I build.
Of those who lay their wear - y heads Up - on Thy sacr - ed Breast.
My Sa - vior; Whose ap - peal-ing Heart, Broke on the Cross for me?
A sing - le drop from that great fount, E - ter - nal and di - vine.
